THE MIDWEST CHAPTER OF THE
AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF PHYSICISTS IN MEDICINE

CONSTITUTION
(Amended November, 2007)

ARTICLE ONE: Name

The name of the Chapter shall be:

THE MIDWEST CHAPTER OF THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF PHYSICISTS IN MEDICINE

It may be referred to in this Constitution and By-Laws as “the Chapter” or “the MCAAPM.”

ARTICLE TWO: Period of Duration

The period of duration is perpetual.

ARTICLE THREE: Area of Jurisdiction

The Chapter headquarters shall be located in the vicinity of Chicago, Illinois. The Chapter shall authority to solicit members primarily employed in Illinois, western Indiana and eastern Wisconsin.

ARTICLE FOUR: Purpose

The purpose of the Chapter shall be to promote the advancement of physics as applied to medicine and related fields. Among others, some specific purposes shall be:

- A. To provide opportunities for scientific discussions and exchange of ideas of physical-medical nature.
- B. To promote improvements and standardization of teaching methods and requirements for students of medical physics.
- C. To take action in scientific and educational matters within the realm of the Society
- D. To discuss and, if necessary, take action in matters relating to the profession of medical physics.
- E. To discuss and, if necessary, take action in matters relating to radiation protection and control.

ARTICLE FIVE: Relationship with National Organization

- A. The Chapter shall function under the sponsorship of the American Association of Physicists in Medicine hereafter referred to also as “the Association” or “the AAPM.”
- B. This Constitution, when signed by the duly authorized officers of the Chapter and The American Association of Physicists in Medicine, shall obligate the officers of both the Chapter and the Constitutions.
- C. The Chapter shall not obligate in any way the officers or members of the AAPM without first obtaining written approval of the duly authorized representatives of the AAPM.
- D. Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and/or scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
- E. No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
- F. Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE SIX: Membership

The chapter shall be divided into several classes of members including Member, Emeritus Members and Associate Members. Further classes of members may be specified in the By-Laws. All classes of members shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of members of members of the Chapter, provided, however, that only Members and Emeritus Members may vote on amendments to the Constitution and only Members of the AAPM may vote on the election of the representative to the AAPM. Members, Emeritus Members and Associate Members may vote on other matters, including election of officers.

Membership is open only to members of the AAPM.

Emeritus Membership is open to a Member in good standing who is either 65 years of age or older, or who is 60 years of age or older and has retired from a full-time position in the medical physics professions.

Associate Membership may be held by individuals who are interested in the application of physics to medicine and biology and in the purposes of this Chapter, but who are ineligible for Membership. Associate Membership can be converted to Membership at any time if the necessary requirements are met.

ARTICLE SEVEN: Election of Officers

The manner of election or appointment of the officers shall be provided in the By-Laws.

ARTICLE EIGHT: Disposition of Assets

In the event of the liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the Chapter, whether voluntary, involuntary, or by operation of law, the disposition of the assets of the Chapter shall be decided by a vote of the membership present at the last Business Meeting. The disposition of the assets of the Chapter shall be decided by a vote of the membership present at the last Business Meeting. The disposition of the assets shall be limited to the AAPM, the Health Physics Society, the Radiation Research Society, or any of their chapters. The disposition of assets may be to any one or any combination of these possible recipients. A two-thirds vote may specify a given formula for disposition; otherwise the assets shall be prorated among the different recipients according to the vote count.

ARTICLE NINE: Annual Business Meeting

The Chapter shall hold an Annual Business Meeting as specified in the By-Laws.

ARTICLE TEN: Amendments

Amendments to the Constitution can be made only at the Annual Business Meeting, or at a special business meeting called for said purpose. In either case, proposed amendments must be supported by a least two members, and reach the Secretary in time to be circulated with the agenda of the meeting. Such a meeting may accept any such proposed amendment, may accept it after modification, or may reject it. A proposed amendment which is accepted without modification becomes effective upon approval by the Executive Board of the AAPM. If a proposed amendment, is modified, it does into become effective until the proposed amendment, as modified, has been circulated to all members and has been accepted without further modification by a subsequent business meeting, and approved by the Executive Board of the AAPM. If and when any amendment to the Constitution has thus been made, the Secretary is required to circulate the Constitution as amended (or such part of it as has been amended) to all Members and Emeritus Members. This must be done as soon as conveniently possible and in any case not later than at the circulation of the notice convening the next Business Meeting. Amendments shall be carried by a two-thirds majority vote of the Members and Emeritus Members present.

ARTICLE ELEVEN: Attestation

The Midwest Chapter of the American Association of Physicists in Medicine is duly authorized by the Board of Directors of the American Association of Physicists in Medicine to function as a Chapter of the Association in accordance with the foregoing Constitution.
