212-788-9638 or 212-788-9810 The New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene is pleased to invite you to join us for the Fourth Annual RSO Symposium, an in-depth discussion of the nuclear reactor accident in Fukushima Japan, its impact, and the on-going response efforts. We have assembled a distinguished group of speakers, all of whom were involved in various aspects of the accident and its aftermath. The talks scheduled for the symposium are:

What Happened at Fukushima?

• The Japanese Experience

The American Response—NRC

Mapping the Fallout

 Environmental Measurements in an Emergency

• The Mental Health Impact

Lake Barrett (L. Barrett Consulting) Nanao Kamada (Hiroshima Atomic Bomb Survivors Relief Foundation)

TBD (Nuclear Regulatory Commission)

David Bowman (Department of Energy Office of Emergency Response)

Stephen Musolino (Brookhaven National Laboratory)

Steven Becker (University of Alabama at Birmingham)

This is shaping up to be the first significant symposium on the recent accident and each of our speakers is a recognized expert in their field. We hope you will join us for this event.

Seating is limited, therefore all registrations must be received by Oct 21, 2011.
